President's Message

Our next scheduled meeting will be held on Wednesday January 6, 2010 at 8 p.m. in our hall. All members are welcomed and encouraged to attend.

I hope everyone had a very blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year.

I would like to congratulate Herman Boyle for receiving his Lifetime Membership Award from the National Board. As we all know, this award is well deserved and long overdue. Herman has been a pillar in our division for many years and continues to be there for the good of our division. Congratulations Herman!!!

I am very happy to announce that on Tuesday, January 19, 2010 from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. there will be FREE PROSTATE SCREENING in our hall. An associate of Dr. Felderman, from the Integrated Medical Foundation will be performing the screening to our members. Unfortunately due to time restrictions the screenings will be open only to all of our members and any spouse from our ladies division. To register for your FREE screening please contact me at 581-3143.

The installation of new officers will be held on January 23, 2010 beginning at 6 p.m. The Junior Girls will lead off the ceremonies followed by the LAOH, Junior Boys and finally the men of the AOH. There will be entertainment and food following the ceremonies.

Thank you to John Davis and Colm Ashe for hosting the party for our division children on Saturday, Dec. 11th and then the party for the children from the community on Sunday the 12th. These are two very special events which the children look forward to each year and because of John, Colm and Santa, everyone enjoyed themselves.

Finally, this is my final newsletter as your president. It has been a pleasure to serve as your president. One of the proudest moments I had was administering the oath to several of the boys from the Junior Boys that I worked with for several years, and then making the move to the Men's Division back in May of 2008. Division 7 is well respected throughout the country and will continue to do so in the future due to the leadership of your new officers. I would like to thank all of the officers on my board for doing an outstanding job for our division these past two years. Vic, Mac, Dave, Larry, Tommy, Tom, Shawn and Father Hugh thank you. I would also like to thank past presidents who I have leaned on for their advice. Thank you Danny Kissane, Herman Boyle, Tom McEnroe, Tom Conway and Jim Ryan for your support. Also thanks to the corporation for keeping the building in magnificent condition. There are many other people who work very hard behind the scene to keep our division strong and functioning. A special thanks to Don Dobbin and Al Norton for always being there for our division. Working with the finest Ladies Division and the finest Ladies County Division was always a pleasure. Thanks Alice and Aggie. Brett thanks for your support too. And finally, biggest thank you to my wife and family for putting up with the stress caused by me during the last two years. Thank you Lea, Shanna and Patrick for being there for me, I love you all very much.

Please pray for our sick and our deceased.

God Bless the Troops and the unborn.

Yours in Friendship, Unity
and Christian Charity
Jerry Delaney

L.A.O.H.

First, I hope that everyone had a blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year. The past meeting of the LAOH Division 7 was held on Wednesday, December 9th. Thank you to all of the Ladies who made a holiday appetizer and/or dessert to share at our meeting. I would also like to thank Mary Ann Baron and Aggie O'Leary for once again running the annual 300 Raffle which starts with the kick-off at the Division picnic and runs through to the drawing which was held on Friday, December 11th. I would also like to thank Donna Boyle who took over while Dad was recovering from heart surgery and sold over 50 raffles. The success of this raffle could not be possible without these people who help run it every year and it allows our LAOH Division to be that much more charitable with our Christmas donations. Congratulations to our own Kerry Gimble and her mom on being the big winner of the First Prize - $1,000.

I would also like to thank all of the members who came down to the pub to show their love and support for Kevin Boyle on Saturday December 5th. It was great to see all of you there!

The Installation of the 2010/2011 Officers will be held on Saturday, January 23rd beginning at 6:00pm. I would like to wish my successor, Charlene Gibbs and her Board of Officer's my very best wishes. There is no doubt that she will do an excellent job as your next Division President. I have so many people to thank beginning with my husband, Jimmy and my family for their love and support this past two years. To my Board of Officer's - THANK YOU just doesn't seem to be enough for all of your help and assistance in every task I have thrown your way. A big thank you also goes out to President Jerry Delaney and the Men's Division, Vinny Clancy and the Corporation, and to my Past President's (you know who you are) whom I have called on once, twice, twenty times in the past two years for their help and guidance; to Al Norton for keeping me on my toes when I may have forgotten how quickly the fifteenth of each month has come and gone and you had no article from me.....

Finally, thank you to all of the members of Division 7 - you are the BEST!

The next meeting of the LAOH Division 7 will be held on Wednesday, January 13th beginning at 7:30pm with the recitation of the Rosary.

Yours in Friendship, Unity
and Christian Charity,
AliceFaughnan

Children's Christmas Parties

The weekend of, December 12th and 13th, two wonderful events took place at our hall. The first, on Saturday, was the annual Division 7 Children's Christmas party. Over 50 children and grandchildren of our members took part in a great afternoon filled with food, games and visits from Frosty, Elmo and of course, Santa and his number one Elf.

On Sunday, we had our 12th Annual Division 7 Children's Fund Christmas party. This year we were able to make the Christmas season a little more enjoyable for almost 80 children and their families. There's nothing more bittersweet than having a mom or dad tell you that without this party their child might not have had a Christmas at all.

As with all things at our hall, they don't happen by themselves. There are so many people to thank and I'm sure I'll forget some. The first person I'd like to thank is Colm Ashe, your host on Saturday. Colm not only went out and shopped for the food; he ended up cooking as well. You haven't lived until you had a "Colmburger"! I also want to thank Rob Doyle for his shopping skills, Joanne Clancy and her "Posse of Wrappers", Vic Vogel and Kathleen, Aggie O'Leary, Shaun O'Neil, John Clarkin and his wife, Barry Heathwood, Dan Sullivan, Jack Murphy and his elf Doug, Nick, John, Bob "Soda Jerk" Knockenhauer, Tony Scott and anyone else I missed.

The final person I need to thank is our president, Jerry Delaney. Jerry, if these kids only knew all that you have done for them these last two year, their appreciation would last a lifetime. On behalf of them and myself, I thank you for the support you have always given to the Children's Fund Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Juniors

Our division is fortunate to have such a strong, active Junior organization. They believe in what they are doing as evidenced by their participation. Usually for the December meeting the Juniors have a grab bag gift swap consisting of a $10 gift card. Instead this year they decided to fill a shoe box with things valued at $10 to donate to a needy child. At the meeting they wrapped their own gift box which was filled to the max with fun items. We helped each other with this task as the "gift bag" trend has lessened our wrapping skills! We wrapped over 25 shoe boxes to be donated to St. Mary's shoebox program. They will bring a smile to 25 children.

As a result of the Irish Essay Workshop we should have several essays to submit from our division. These essays will be collected during the Christmas break to be submitted by January 5th. Many people have volunteered their time to help guide our Juniors. Dave Ring, Marge Intreglia, Tom Conway, Kathleen Callegari, and Liz Colgan have been very helpful. Thank you and also thank you to the parents who have been so supportive.

Our next meeting will be held on January 11 at 6:30 pm. We will be making our donation to Make-A-Wish that night.

Our new slate of officers will be installed January 23 at 6 pm along with the LAOH and AOH officers. Congratulations to the new officers. They are:

Senate Panel Approves Obama's
Pro-Abortion EEOC Nominee,
Chai Feldblum
Washington, DC (LifeNews.com)

On Thursday, Dec 10, 2009, the Senate HELP Committee approved the nomination from President Barack Obama of a pro-abortion activist to serve on the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Senators met in a secretive closed-session meeting without the normal opportunity for media coverage and oversight.

The panel met in executive session that was held off the Senate floor in between votes, instead of in its normal committee meeting room.

In a press statement about the ad hoc meeting, pro-abortion committee chairman Sen. Tom Harkin, an Iowa Democrat, said the closed meeting was held "to accommodate members' schedules."

The nomination of pro-abortion Georgetown University law professor Chai Feldblum to serve on the EEOC now heads to the full Senate and, if confirmed Feldblum would serve on the EEOC for five years and could decide cases that related to pressuring women employees to have abortions or pressuring pro-life advocates to allow abortions in insurance policies.

Feldblum isn't known by most Americans, but she worked for the pro-abortion Human Rights Campaign Fund and, from 1986-1987 and has been a legislative counsel for the pro-abortion ACLU.

She also clerked for Supreme Court Justice Harry A. Blackmun, the infamous judge who handed down the Roe v. Wade decision that has allowed more than 51 million abortions.

Harkin did not release the vote tally on the nominations, and Feldblum's nomination was reportedly included with a slate of other nominees who were voted on a group.

Noting her pro-abortion position, several pro-life groups, including Focus on the Family, the Traditional Values Coalition, the Liberty Counsel, and the American Family Association, signed onto a December 8 letter to the committee saying they "strongly oppose" Feldblum's nomination.

Concerned Women for America, on its web site, says Feldblum "represents one of the most serious threats to religious freedom we have seen in a long time" and the Traditional Values Coalition urged its members to call Senate Committee members to oppose the nomination.

John Walsh, Chairman

Kevin Boyle Fundraiser

The Corporation would like to thank everyone who attended the Kevin Boyle event, and give special thanks to all who volunteered. In no particular order: John McCullough, Mike McCall Jr., Ed Julich, John Flynn, Dan Sullivan, Tom McHugh (LIRR), Johnny Corrigan, Pat Gallagher, Pat Maune, Smitty, Ed Smith, Gene Hearl, John McMahon (Tipp), John Farrell, John Clarkin, John Davis, Alice Faughnan, and Sue O'Neill. Sorry for any omissions.

We are grateful for the entertainment provided by Mr. & Mrs. Eamonn O'Rourke and Gerry Finlay, as well as the wonderful music of our own Roisin Dubh Pipe Band. Thanks again to all.

Please Pray For...

In the event of sickness or a death in the family, please call the Hall at 581-9317 and leave a message for the Chairman of the Committee on the Sick, John Fitzpatrick at 581-5705.

Announcements

Dear Friends,
 Words cannot begin to express my deep appreciation for the many hall members and friends that have sent me well wishes during my recent hospitalization.

Your cards, calls and messages have meant more to me than you will ever know.

When I learned that so many of you attended and participated in a fundraiser at the Hibernian hall for me, I was overwhelmed.

To each and every one of you that has even given a thought for me over these past nine weeks, from the bottom of my heart, I can't thank you enough. It will always be remembered.

I hope to be well enough soon to thank each of you personally.

Your Friend,
 Kevin Boyle
